When you take so long to make something, and you're halfway through making it and it sucks, and you look at it and you pull away, and you're like man, I put 6 hours into this, this fucking sucks but I got to see it through. And then you put another 6 hours into it, and then you're like, wow this still sucks. Yeah, cause you suck. You don't you you don't make this shit. This is the experience of making something. But I made it though. Look at it. It's done. 12 hours of work. It looks like shit, but it's me man. And then you try again but with this new found knowledge of how much you suck and then boom, another 12 hours. Guess what? Still sucks. Cause you suck. And you're like okay, that's done. I really like this now. I like sucking. I I enjoy sucking. The suck is the beauty. All this AI bull, it feels homophobic. Suck man. Just get in there and suck. Like fuck man. Cause then once it's good then you start fucking. You know what I mean? This fucks. The feeling when you make something and you're like damn this fucks? Whoa! Another 12 hours for the thousandth time, and it fucks and you're proud and then other people are like whoa that fucks. Damn man, that's what it's meant to do. That's fucking life. It's the antithesis of life is what AI is.
